STUDIO 20

Old on the Outside, New on the Inside.

Inspired by modern, rustic living spaces, the Studio 20 collection from Palmetto Home brings new life to old materials. Distressed solid pine made from reclaimed wooden pallets are combined with new pine and Palmetto's quality construction to create a fabulous collection of casegoods and complimentary upholstery for every room.

A subtle, water-based gray finish with fresh white glaze highlights the wood's natural grain and imperfections. Visible nail holes, scratches and divots pay homage to the history and character of reclaimed wood, giving each piece a unique story. Thoughtfully sourced and hand crafted, the Studio 20 collection reflects environmentally-conscious attitudes with a modern aesthetic.

Geometric patterns, clean lines and understated contemporary hardware are paired with rustic textures to create an elevated, casual look. Refined and stylish, the 18-piece Studio 20 collection of bedroom, dining and living room furniture can be flawlessly incorporated in urban interiors, industrial lofts and modern farmhouses for sophisticated living.

The interior of the cases are built to Palmetto Home high quality standards. The drawer boxes are sanded and stained in a light grey to correlate with the outside finish. They are also sealed for a smooth drawer. The drawers are made of 12 mm plywood with English dovetails and rounded edges for lasting strength. The drawer guide is a 45 mm ball bearing with full extension for ease of access.
